The stage coach—the strong box—the shotgun messenger are gone.
They live today only in memory and in the relics of the Wells Fargo Historical Collection.
But the efficiency...the dependability...the exceptional service that won Wells Fargo its reputation in the early West...these are still at your command.

Visitor in San Francisco? Be sure to see all the mementos of the exciting Old West on exhibit in the History Room at our Montgomery Street office—open every banking day from 10 to 3.

You'll always be welcome at Wells Fargo!

INTRODUCTION and GENERAL INDEX

R. L. POLK & CO., publishers of more than 850 city, county, state and national Directories, present to subscribers and the general public, this, the 1957 edition of the San Francisco City Directory.

Confidence in the continued growth of San Francisco's industry, population and wealth, and in the advancement of its civic and social activities, will be maintained as sections of this Directory are consulted, for the Directory is a mirror truly reflecting San Francisco to the world.

The enviable position occupied by R. L. POLK & CO.'S Directories in the estimation of the public throughout the country, has been established by rendering the best in Directory service. With an unrivaled organization, and having had the courteous and hearty cooperation of the business and professional men and residents, the publishers feel that the result of their labors will meet with the approval of every user, and that the San Francisco Directory will fulfill its mission as a source of authentic information pertaining to the city.

Three Major Departments

The three major departments are arranged in the following order:—

I. THE YELLOW PAGES constitute the first major department of the Directory. This embraces a complete list of the names and addresses of the business and professional concerns of San Francisco, arranged in alphabetical order under appropriate headings—a catalog of all the activities of the city. Preceding this catalog, likewise grouped under appropriate headings, are the advertisements and business cards of firms and individuals desiring to present a more complete list of their products or services than is possible in the catalog itself. The Yellow Pages represent reference advertising at its best, and merit the attention of all buyers and sellers seeking sources of supply or markets for goods. In a great metropolis and port city like San Francisco, the necessity of having this kind of information up-to-date and always immediately available, is obvious. The Directory is the common intermediary between buyer and seller, and plays an important role in the daily activities of the commercial, industrial and professional world.

II. THE ALPHABETICAL LIST OF NAMES of residents and business and professional concerns is the second major department, printed on white paper. This is the only record in existence that aims to show the name, marital status, occupation and address of each adult resident of San Francisco, and the name, official personnel, nature and address of each firm and corporation in the city.

III. THE DIRECTORY OF HOUSEHOLDERS, INCLUDING STREET AND AVENUE GUIDE, on green paper, is the third major department. In this section the numbered streets are arranged in numerical order, followed by the named streets in alphabetical order; the numbers of the residences and business concerns are arranged in numerical order under the name of each street, and the names of the householders and concerns are placed opposite the numbers. The names of the intersecting streets appear at their respective crossing points on each street. Special features of this section are the designation of tenant-owned homes and the listing of telephone numbers.

Municipal Publicity

The Directory reflects the achievements and ambitions of the city, depicting in unbiased terms what it has to offer as a place of residence, as a business location, as a port, as a manufacturing site and as an educational center. To broadcast this information, the publishers have placed copies of this issue of the Directory in Directory Libraries, where they are readily available for free public reference, and serve as perpetual and reliable advertisements of San Francisco.

The San Francisco Directory Library

Through the courtesy of the publishers of the San Francisco City Directory, a Directory Library is maintained at the San Francisco Chamber of Commerce, for free reference by the general public. This is one of more than 700 Directory Libraries installed in the chief cities of the U. S. and Canada by members of the Association of North American Directory Publishers, under whose supervision the system is operated.

The publishers appreciatively acknowledge the recognition by those progressive business and professional men who have demonstrated their confidence in the City Directory as an advertising medium, with assurance that it will bring a commensurate return.

SITUATION

San Francisco, "City by the Golden Gate," whose City Hall is geographically situated at 37 degrees 47 minutes north latitude and 122 degrees 25 minutes west longitude—on a hilly peninsula with altitudes ranging from sea level to 933.6 feet U. S. Base, is bounded on three sides by water. Of a total of 93.1 square miles, only 44.82 are land. It is among the few world cities with the distinction of having more than half of its entire area washed daily by the ocean's tidal currents.

San Francisco has within its boundaries three islands—Yerba Buena, Treasure and Alcatraz—besides the Farallon Islands group some 32 miles west of San Francisco, which have been included in the City and County of San Francisco since 1872.

HISTORY

Discovery

San Francisco owes its discovery and much of its history to the daring and adventure-loving early Portuguese, English and Spanish explorers. The romance of those early days clings to the city and lends charm to its atmosphere even today.

Though San Francisco's heritage is rightly credited to the Spanish, more than two centuries before Portola's arrival, Juan Rodrigues Cabrillo in 1542 discovered the Farallon Islands (now a part of San Francisco); next Sir Francis Drake, famed English explorer, passed by the Golden Gate and in 1579 discovered Drake's Bay, a few miles north of San Francisco, where the first church service in the English language on the Pacific Coast was held.

In 1769, Don Gaspar de Portola and his little band of adventurers were the first to glimpse the bay from the nearby hills on the south. Six years later the ship "San Carlos," in command of Don Juan Manuel Ayala, sailed through the Golden Gate to cast the first anchor in the bay. More than a century before, in 1603, Vizcaino visited what is now the Gulf of the Farallons and mapped it as Bahia de Puerto de San Francisco. This is the first time the name San Francisco appeared on record in connection with the vicinity of San Francisco.

Early Beginnings

The beginning of what is now San Francisco was just being founded by the Spaniards when the Liberty Bell pealed the birth of our nation. First Spaniards, then Russians, then Americans came and lived to enjoy life and to rule.

The site for the Presidio of San Francisco was selected on March 28, 1776, by Colonel Juan Bautista de Anza, and on March 29, the site for the mission. Mission San Francisco De Asis (Dolores)—a combination of Mission, Moorish and Corinthian architecture—was founded on June 29, 1776, and dedicated Oct. 3, 1776. While from the beginning the mission was called San Francisco, the settlement at the cove under Telegraph Hill was known as Yerba Buena.

For many centuries, history records, traders sought to reach the Orient through a western route. San Francisco was the westerly outpost in the days of sailing vessels. Growing in stature, the city has become one of the world's great distribution centers.

First Elections

Democratic self-government of the bureaucratic sort decreed by the Mexican Republic came to Yerba Buena (later named San Francisco) before the town itself arrived. Citizens of the partido (civil district) of San Francisco, on Governor Jose Figueroa's orders, assembled at the Presidio on Dec. 7, 1834, to choose electors for the Ayuntamiento (district council). On the following Sunday, Don Francisco de Haro was elected to the district council as Alcalde for the projected pueblo of Yerba Buena.

Naming of the City

The village of Yerba Buena, which in 1847 was to be rechristened with the name of San Francisco, in 1835 was still an insignificant outpost frequented by roving seafarers and was little more than a waste of sand and chaparral, sloping down to a beach and small lagoon which has long since been filled in and is now covered by massive commercial structures. El Paraje de Yerba Buena (the Little Valley of the Good Herb) derived its name in the beginning because of the aromatic vine found in the underbrush there.

The Bay

In 1835, the Bay was declared a port of entry by Governor Pablo Vicente de Sola. He appointed as captain of the Port of San Francisco, William Antonio Richardson, a young master mariner who had deserted the British whaler "Orion" in 1822 and set up the first "house" in Yerba Buena Cove, made up of some redwood poles over which was stretched a ship's sail.

During 1836, the Port of San Francisco became an important trading post. On July 1, 1836, Jacob Primer Leese, Ohio-born, partner in a Monterey mercantile firm, arrived by the barque "Don Quixote" from Monterey and by July 4 had thrown up a frame house 25 by 60 feet, the first "real" house to be built—part dwelling and part warehouse. He then summoned all the leading Mexican families and other prominent persons to an Independence Day celebration which lasted two days and a night. During the celebration the Stars and Stripes were raised beside the Mexican flag for the first time in San Francisco.

First Survey

In the autumn of 1839, Jacques Vioget, a versatile Swiss of the Peruvian brig "Delmira," was commissioned by Alcalde de Haro to make the first land survey of Yerba Buena. By 1841 thirty families comprised the village population. During the next five years some of the prominent early settlers shifted to other localities in the Bay Area. At the same time, Yerba Buena, outrivaled by the port of Honolulu, drifted back into obscurity.

"The Portsmouth"

Then, on July 9, 1846, the "U. S. S. Portsmouth" quietly dropped anchor in Yerba Buena Cove, and Capt. John B. Montgomery and 70 sailors and marines came ashore and ran up the Stars and Stripes on Mexico's flagpole atop the adobe Custom House near the Plaza, as the "Portsmouth" gave a 21-gun salute. Thus passed the rule of the village of Yerba Buena from Spanish to American. On Aug. 6, 1846, Captain Montgomery appointed Lieut. Washington Allen Bartlett as the first Alcalde of Yerba Buena under the American flag. Bartlett was confirmed by public vote on Sept. 15. His first important decree ordered the revision of Vioget's survey, which had served to locate building lots since 1839. His civil engineer, Jasper O'Farrell, in making the survey, discovered in 1847 that streets as laid out in the early survey intersected at 2½ degrees from a right angle. Correction of this error, known as "O'Farrell's Swing," was made promptly.

A Reception Center Since Gold Days

When gold was discovered on Jan. 24, 1848, in Sutter's millrace on the American River, and the evidence reached San Francisco's nearly 900 inhabitants, the first gold rush, led by Sam Brannan, publisher of the town's newspaper, "The Star," left only seven inhabitants behind. As the news spread around the world and ships came streaming into the harbor, a year later found over 6,000 miners at the diggings, and San Francisco again was a cantonment of tents with a population reported at 2,000 excited transients.

GOVERNMENT

San Francisco has a consolidated City and County government, with legislative powers vested in a board of supervisors of eleven members, five and six being elected every two years for four-year terms. The Mayor, Treasurer, Assessor, City Attorney, Public Defender, District Attorney, Sheriff, and Superior and Municipal Court Judges are elected by the people and serve terms of four years. The Mayor receives $22,400 a year. The Chief Administrative Officer, appointed by the Mayor but thereafter having permanent tenure, receives $17,000 per annum. The Controller, appointed by the Mayor, subject to confirmation by the Supervisors, also has tenure. The Mayor appoints members of and supervises police, fire, civil service, public utilities, park and recreation, welfare, library, city planning, art, housing, parking permit appeals, redevelopment, retirement (in part) and welfare boards or commissions, and may remove his appointees except civil service, public utilities, recreation and park, and welfare commissioners, and members of the school board. The Mayor also has a power of veto over legislation.

The San Francisco Unified School District and the City and County have coterminous boundaries. Members of the Board of Education are nominated by the Mayor and passed upon by the voters.

San Francisco has operated under five charters, granted in 1850, 1856, 1861, 1898 and 1932.

Initiative and referendum clauses were first embraced in the 1898 charter.

Mayor James Rolph, Jr., took office in 1911 and served five successive terms, until he became Governor of the State. In 1931 he was succeeded by Angelo J. Rossi, who served until 1944, when he was succeeded by Roger D. Lapham, who pledged himself in advance to one term only. Mayor Elmer E. Robinson took office Jan. 8, 1948, for a four-year term, and was re-elected for a second four-year term ending Jan. 8, 1956. The present mayor is George Christopher.

HARBOR AND COMMERCE

Centered in the San Francisco Bay Area, San Francisco is an important port of general commerce, handling a large and valuable domestic and foreign trade. It is the main gateway of commerce for the vast territory of the Central Pacific Coast Area and Intermountain States. The Bay extends from the Golden Gate to the confluence of the Sacramento and San Joaquin rivers on the northeast, and to a point near San Jose on the south, covering an area of 450 square miles. The deep-water commerce enters San Francisco Bay through the mile-wide Golden Gate, and thus shipping is afforded natural protection in the waters of the Bay. To this has been added a comprehensive system of docking and berthing facilities, rail and freight connections, modern and well-equipped warehouses, etc. San Francisco harbor has 18 miles of berthing space; 228 acres of pier and wharf area; 43 modern piers; facilities to dock the largest vessels; several dry docks; 61 miles of harbor trackage connecting piers and warehouses; foreign-trade zone; and modern grain, refrigeration, banana, cotton, copra and heliport terminals.

The harbor is controlled by the State of California and is governed by the State Board of Harbor Commissioners appointed by the Governor. Of the 43 piers, most of them are assigned to steamship companies having their own fleets and operating their own schedules. San Francisco harbor facilities are valued at more than $100,000,000.

The water-borne cargo tonnage of San Francisco Bay is foremost on the Pacific Coast and high among those of the nation's ports.

Exports during 1955 amounted to..$415,134,080.

Imports during 1955 amounted to..$355,015,168

The principal exports by value have been cotton (unmanufactured); fruits, dried and evaporated; petroleum products; rice; milk, canned, evaporated and dried; machinery; medical and pharmaceutical preparations; and electrical machinery and apparatus.

The principal imports have been coffee, copra, crude petroleum, lead ores and manufactures, newsprint paper stock, jute and burlap, tea, nut preparations, wool, and automobiles and parts.

The 1954 report of the U. S. Army Engineers shows the distribution of the cargo tonnage, domestic and foreign, as follows:

Total tonnage, San Francisco Bay	42,790,632
Foreign tonnage	5,489,563
Inland waterway tonnage	14,062,743
Domestic coastwise tonnage	23,238,326

Besides the movement of commodities by water, there is a large rail traffic in San Francisco; during 1955 it reached 172,681 freight-car movements, and 3,653,234 truck movements over Bay and Golden Gate bridges.

San Francisco also is the ocean port for the great inland valleys of California, 500 miles in length and 50 miles wide and containing 16,100,000 acres of farm land. About 6,400,000 acres of this is crop land, of which several million acres are irrigated.

San Francisco is normally a port of call for some 85 shipping lines, with ships serving at least 300 of the world's ports.

TRANSPORTATION

Distribution Facilities—A vast transportation network, including transcontinental rail and highway facilities, air transport services, and steamship lines, converges in San Francisco, bringing unexcelled transportation services to local industry and business. San Francisco's fortunate geographic position on the Pacific Coast, combined with excellent distribution facilities, makes it possible for business and industry located here to serve a larger portion of the Western markets at lower distribution costs than can be reached from any other Pacific Coast city.

Rail

San Francisco is served directly by four Class I railroads operating more than 27,000 miles of line. These railroads with their connections thoroughly blanket California and neighboring states, and by means of seven major transcontinental routes and connecting routes provide fast, dependable service to and from all parts of the U. S., Canada and Mexico. Passenger trains second to none are operated to and from the city. Reciprocal switching arrangements are in effect, under which the line-haul carrier will absorb the charges of the switching carrier on competitive traffic. Over 50 railroads maintain off-line agencies here.

State Belt Railroad—These four railroads connect with the State Belt which serves the San Francisco piers and many industries near the waterfront. They absorb the Belt's switching charge on line-haul carload traffic and, in part, on interline switching movements subject to stated minimum revenue per car.

L. C. L. Service—Store-door pick-up and delivery service for less-than-carload traffic is available between San Francisco and practically all points in California and neighboring states, including over-night service to points in the San Joaquin and Sacramento valleys, along the Coast, and Los Angeles.

Water

Fast new freighters provide regular service between San Francisco and the Hawaiian Islands, Alaska, Australia, New Zealand, the South Seas, the Orient, Central and South America, the West Indies, Europe, South Africa and North Africa, also the Atlantic and Gulf coasts of the U. S. Luxurious and reconverted passenger liners operate to the Hawaiian Islands, the Orient and around the world. Limited passenger accommodations are available on freighters to Australia, the Orient, Central and South America, Europe, Puerto Rico, South Africa, and the East Coast of the U. S. Barge services for bulk and general cargo are maintained to points on San Francisco Bay and connecting waters.

Highway

Truck Lines—Over 100 common-carrier truck lines provide scheduled service between San Francisco and points in California and neighboring states. Overnight service is available to all important points in California and to southern Oregon and western Nevada. In addition, more than 600 truck operators having headquarters or agencies in San Francisco hold intrastate permits from the Public Utilities Commission of California or interstate permits from the Interstate Commerce Commission.

Bus Lines—Bus lines radiate north, east and south, providing frequent service between San Francisco and all important points in California and the eleven Western states. Two lines provide transcontinental service. Sightseeing buses operate between San Francisco and neighboring points of interest, as well as in the city proper. Buses and limousines are available for charter.

Air

San Francisco is the major air terminal of the Pacific. Its huge international airport ranks among the world's finest. This magnificent terminal was dedicated in 1954 as a living, growing monument to commercial aviation. Air service originates from here to virtually every point in the U. S., the Far East, Australia, the Pacific Islands, and Central and South America, and direct through-plane service with but one stop between here and Europe. Two major American flag international carriers serving San Francisco have applied to the Civil Aeronautics Board for permission to enter air service by a transpolar route from the West Coast to Europe. One foreign flag carrier with CAB approval has designated San Francisco as its West Coast terminus in air service between the Pacific Coast and Europe.

Four of the nation's largest domestic carriers, four overseas lines, and three local service carriers, all certificated, provide daily scheduled services for passengers, mail, express and freight. Daily service also is provided by the two leading air freight lines. Many of the world's air lines which do not directly serve the city, have ticket offices or traffic representatives here.

Two of the world's largest carriers have immense maintenance bases at the San Francisco airport, and other lines maintain servicing facilities which will be expanded under the development program now in progress.

Charter services, flight training and facilities for private planes are available at many smaller airports in the vicinity of San Francisco.

MANUFACTURERS

The manufacturing industries in San Francisco comprise an important part of the city's activities, leading the nine major fields of activity in San Francisco in insured payroll. Over one-fifth of the insured employment and payroll was accounted for by the manufacturing industries in 1955.

The insured wages in the manufacturing industries in San Francisco during 1955 amounted to about $345,000,000, or about $85,000,000 above 1950 level.

Many of the large key industries in the Metropolitan Area, with their plants outside the corporate city limits, have their headquarters in San Francisco, from which they conduct their finances, purchases and sales.

RETAIL TRADE AND SERVICE ESTABLISHMENTS

Retail Trade

Retail trade is one of the major activities among the business and industry groups in San Francisco, ranking second in number of employees, and third in payroll. Tangible personal property sold at retail through some 22,675 outlets in San Francisco during 1955 amounted to $1,631,823,000 of taxable sales. Licensed retail outlets sales amounted to $1,010,648,000, personal service establishments, $44,086,000 and manufacturing wholesaling, contracting and miscellaneous outlets, $577,089,000. Sales of food for off-premise consumption and gasoline were not included in taxable sales but if included, the total retail trade would probably reach two billion in 1955.

BAY REGION MARKET DEVELOPMENTS

Population

The Bay Region (13-county) population, on Jan. 1, 1956, was estimated at 3,986,300, an increase of 719,916 since April 1, 1950. The growth between 1940 and 1950 exceeded the growth of all but four states—California, New York, Texas and Michigan—and the 1950 total population exceeded that of 32 states. The Bay Area (nine-county) population on Jan. 1, 1956, was estimated at 3,244,900. The growth in this area between 1940 and 1950 exceeded the growth of all but five states—California, New York, Texas, Michigan and Ohio.

Employment

Estimated civilian employment in the San Francisco Metropolitan Area (6 counties), in April, 1956, totaled 1,035,400 persons. The manufacturing group employed 208,200, or 20.1% of the total; the service group, 227,100, or 21.9%; retail group, 169,900, or 16.4%; wholesale group, 73,800, or 7.1%; transportation and public utilities, 113,000, or 10.9%; finance, 66,500, or 6.4%; construction, 70,200, or 6.8%; government, 87,000, or 8.4%; agriculture, forestry and fishing, 19,800, or 1.7%; the balance, unclassified.

Industrial Development

During 1955 in the Bay Region, 514 industrial projects with outlays of $143,508,546 were reported, compared to 525 projects with outlays of $128,520,273 in 1954. Of the total in 1955, 398 were expansions with outlays of $79,834,241, and 116 were new plants with outlays of $63,674,295.

Finance

1955 Bay Area (5 cities) bank debits of $53,206,537,000 was an increase of 35.4% over 1950 and 340.7% over 1940.

Trade

Tangible personal property sold at retail through 22,675 outlets in San Francisco during 1955 attained a total of $1,631,823,000 in taxable sales. Sales of food for off-premise consumption and gasoline sales are not included in taxable sales, but if added, San Francisco's 1955 trade would amount to about $2,000,000,000.

Sales of the 10,448 licensed retail outlets during 1955 amounted to $1,010,648,000; sales of 3,319 personal service establishments amounted to $44,086,000, and sales of 8,908 manufacturing, wholesaling, contracting and miscellaneous outlets amounted to $577,089,000.

The 1956 first quarter taxable retail sales in San Francisco of $393,748,000 exceeded the same period of 1955 by 8.3%, and retail outlet sales of $237,146,000 for the same period were up 5.3%. San Francisco accounted for 36.6% of the nine-Bay-county total taxable sales during the first quarter of 1956.

Construction and Real Estate

San Francisco building permits value for 1955 amounted to $64,680,018, compared with $57,745,732 in 1954. New residential permits accounted for $21,787,366 of this amount and was down 9.4%, while new nonresidential amounting to $25,313,381 was up 31%. Additions, alterations and repairs aggregating $17,579,271 showed an increase of 22.3%. Newly-constructed single-family dwelling units connected with utilities in the Bay Area division of P. G. & E. were estimated at 41,150 in 1955, compared with 32,450 in 1954. The 1956 total is estimated at 42,550; of this, the San Francisco-San Jose divisions accounted for about 19,900 units; the East Bay, 15,000; and North Bay, 7,650. San Francisco real estate deeds recorded amounted to 18,825, compared with 17,116 in 1954. Mortgages and deeds of trust numbered 17,899 and amounted to $219,757,764 — an increase of 10.6% in number and 28.1% in amount.

Intercity and Interstate Traffic

Golden Gate Bridge vehicle crossings in 1955 established a new high of 13,968,539, or 10.5% above 1954. Bay Bridge vehicle crossings were also at a new high of 32,382,837 in 1955, or 3.6% above the previous year.

Total daily passenger movements to and from San Francisco through the Peninsula, East Bay and North Bay gateways during the summer of 1954 amounted to 580,482, compared with 550,349 in 1952; 82.5% of the passengers traveled by automobile and 17.5% by interurban transit. Of the total, 49.3% were from the Peninsula, 35.8% from the East Bay and 14.9% from the North Bay.

Automotive travel into California during 1955 established new highs, with out-of-state visitors entering northern California by passenger automobile accounting for 47.2% of the state entries, or 2,238,169 persons, a gain of 3.1%. Californians returning through northern California's gateways accounted for another 2,652,169 persons, or 49.6% of the state's total. Prospective visitor and newcomer written inquiries to the San Francisco Chamber of Commerce during 1955 topped 1954 by 7.2%.

BUSINESS ACTIVITY IN 1955

Business activity in San Francisco during 1955 attained the highest level in history, and surpassed the preceding year by 8.4%. The San Francisco Chamber of Commerce Index reached 169.5 in December and averaged 139.3 for the 12-months period (1945-1949 average equals 100 index).

The 1955 cumulative business trend in San Francisco started out with a modest gain over 1954 of 5.6% at the end of the first quarter, at midyear the increase amounted to 7.8%, at the end of the third quarter to 8.5%, at the end of 11 months to 9%, then settled back to 8.4% for the full year. The great storm which struck northern California with devastating force, flooding large areas and slowing highway and rail traffic almost to a standstill, seriously handicapped normal business during the closing weeks of the year.

Transportation

Port of San Francisco revenue tonnage, freight-car movements, bridge truck and passenger vehicle traffic and San Francisco Airport traffic in 1955 all surpassed the previous year by good margins, and a few established new records. San Francisco Port revenue tonnage increased 8.5%; freight-car movements, 6.5%; bridge truck movements, 6.3%. Airport traffic established new highs, with passengers on and off mounting to 2,595,808, up 18.5%; air freight, 59,517,932 lbs., up 34.2%; air mail, 35,130,196 lbs., up 19.6%; and air express, 8,210,332 lbs., up 24.2%. Cargo vessel arrivals in San Francisco Bay in 1955 totaled 4,638, compared with 4,662 in 1954. Bridge vehicle crossings set new highs, with the Bay Bridge total for the year amounting to 32,332,837 and the Golden Gate Bridge total to 13,968,539.

Living Costs

San Francisco consumer prices in December, 1955, were fractionally higher than a year before, but the four-quarter average was down 0.6% based on the All Items Index reported by the U. S. Department of Labor. Food prices also were down 0.6%, housing 1%, transportation 1.8% and personal care 1.1%. Opposing these trends, apparel prices were up 0.9%, rent 2.3%, medical 1%, and miscellaneous, 0.2%.

FINANCE

Financial Capital

San Francisco, the financial and insurance capital of the West, is headquarters of the world's largest bank and is the nation's second most important financial center. Six of the nation's 100 largest commercial banks are located in San Francisco, with 1955 deposits of $13,000,000,000.

The Federal Reserve Bank of San Francisco is the headquarters of the Twelfth Federal Reserve District. Member banks in this District did the second largest volume of business in 1955. They reported 8,961 officers and 55,285 employees and accounted for 14% of the total assets, 22% of the time deposits—highest of all districts—17% of taxes on net income, and 15% of net profits of all member banks in Federal Reserve System.

Stock Exchange

The expeditious handling of widely-diversified financial transactions has contributed greatly to the sound industrial and trade relations between San Francisco and the Western Regional Markets. The San Francisco Stock Exchange continues to hold a prominent place among the nation's largest regional security markets. At the end of 1955, 427 securities were admitted to trading privileges on the Exchange —209 listed and 218 unlisted.

Thirty Large Corporations Headquartered in San Francisco

Thirty large corporations with their national headquarters in San Francisco have combined assets of $30,800,000,000. Representing a broad cross-section of the national economy, they include finance, utilities, railroads, shipping, manufacturing and trade.

A few of these corporations are among the largest in the nation—one of the banks and the gas and electric company are the nation's foremost—and one of the railroads is next largest in its field. Eight are billion-dollar businesses, and twelve range between $100,000,000 and $1,000,000,000. Many hundreds of firms with national reputation have established their Western headquarters in San Francisco.

Banking

There are 12 banks in San Francisco, several of which operate a number of branches. A few banks with headquarters here operate branch systems throughout the state. Eight banks are under State supervision. There are four national banks and each has a trust department; the trust departments are under State supervision.

Insurance

San Francisco is the insurance center of the West, and California headquarters of about 57% of the insurance organizations authorized to transact business in California. Represented in San Francisco in the fall of 1955 were 675 insurance carriers, agents and brokers, offering all classes of business including the major lines, such as life, auto, disability, liability, health, fire, marine, workmen's compensation, title, fidelity, security, burglary and theft, and extended coverage. The industry employs about 21,200 persons with annual payrolls of about $89,000,000. In addition, San Francisco is the headquarters of some 16 insurance associations including such prominent names as Board of Fire Underwriters of the Pacific, Pacific Fire Rating Bureau, and Insurance Brokers Exchange of California.

Direct premiums written by all insurance groups in California amounted to $1,911,135,153 in 1954, or 3.2% above the previous year. The direct losses paid, $752,078,547, was a decrease of 5.1%. Life insurance in force totaled $26,000,000,000 in California in 1954.

PUBLIC BUILDINGS

First comes the group in the Civic Center, declared by the Duke of Connaught to be the finest thing of its kind in the world. The group consists: (1) City Hall, of classic design, surmounted by an immense dome, higher than the dome of the Capitol at Washington; cost, $4,000,000. (2) Civic Auditorium, seating capacity of 12,000 in the main auditorium, with numerous small halls; cost, $2,000,000. (3) San Francisco Public Library; cost, $1,500,000. (4) State Building; cost, $1,000,000. (5) War Memorial group of buildings, as a part of Civic Center; cost, $4,000,000, consisting of Civic Opera House, American Legion halls, etc. The San Francisco Federal Building cost $3,000,000.

The California Palace of the Legion of Honor, in Lincoln Park, overlooking the Golden Gate, is a replica of the Palace of the Legion of Honor in Paris. It was presented to the City. The structure cost $2,000,000. Other leading public buildings are the U. S. Mint, located at Market St. and Duboce Ave., built in 1937; the Post Office Building, corner of 7th and Mission streets; and the Ferry Building, at the foot of Market St. on the waterfront, built by the State in 1896 at a cost of $1,000,000. The Ferry Building is 659 feet long and 156 feet wide, and in addition to serving as a ferryboat terminal, contains many State offices. The Customs House and U. S. Appraiser's Building represents an expenditure of more than $4,000,000. In Golden Gate Park are located the deYoung Memorial Museum, Academy of Sciences, Steinhart Aquarium, Museum of Anthropology, and the Morrison Planetarium. At Kearny and Washington streets is the Hall of Justice, erected in 1910 at a cost of $1,000,000, containing police courts and the criminal department of the superior court. The Golden Gate Bridge, costing $35,000,000, was opened to traffic in May, 1937, and the San Francisco-Oakland Bay Bridge, costing $78,000,000, was opened to vehicular traffic Nov. 12, 1936. San Francisco East Bay Terminal (at Mission and 1st streets) is a $2,000,000 structure opened to interurban train service Jan. 15, 1939. The $2,730,000 Rincon Annex Post Office was opened in 1940. (See also "Social Features.")

PARKS

San Francisco is noted for its beautiful and extensive parks. There are 52 parks, with 3,080 acres, and 74 recreation units, with 280 acres. Still others are under development. In addition to the municipal parks, the several Government reservations, the largest of which is the Presidio, comprising 1,542 acres, all go toward augmenting the aggregate. The area given does not include the numerous golf courses in and about the city. More than $15,000,000 has been expended on municipal parks since 1870. All of San Francisco's parks are "man-made." Originally only sand dunes marked the spots where today are gardens of rare flowers, shrubs and giant trees. Even lakes, streams, waterfalls, hills, valleys and dales were developed by man, to say nothing of the miles of walks, bridle paths and boulevards traversing the parks. Golden Gate Park is one of the world's most noted playgrounds. It comprises 1,013 acres and is about three miles long and a half-mile wide, extending from Stanyan St. on the east to the Pacific Ocean on the west, and lies in the midst of San Francisco's choice residential districts. In the park are many museums and monuments, aviary, aquarium, music temple, stadium, tennis courts, baseball grounds, football grounds, trotting and packing horse track, athletic field and running track paddocks, and children's playgrounds. There are more than 25 miles of improved driveways in the park. Wild animals of many species are found here, while every bird and squirrel known to California flies or roams at will through the dense woods and shrubbery. At the western end of the park is to be seen the sloop "Gjoa," the only vessel that ever navigated the Northwest Passage. It was given to San Francisco by its owner, the late Capt. Roald Amundsen, explorer and discoverer of the South Pole. The gift was accepted by San Francisco, June 16, 1909. The ship was hauled upon the beach and is protected by a high iron fence.

SOCIAL FEATURES

Events—The cosmopolitan character of San Francisco is well portrayed by the interesting and diversified events which take place daily. The citizen or visitor will find many educational things of interest, such as lectures, concerts, readings, recitals, and special exhibits of drawing, painting, sculpture, and other works of art.

Art Galleries—Three public art galleries and several semi-public galleries offer exhibits and collections of national and international fame. The M. H. deYoung Memorial Museum, the San Francisco Museum of Art, and the California Palace of the Legion of Honor attract hundreds of thousands of visitors annually.

Library—The main public library is located in the Civic Center. There are 24 branches and one depository. This system has 695,346 volumes. About 2,871,000 books were circulated for home reading during the past year. In addition to the public libraries, there are nearly 100 private and special libraries, including technical and institutional. There are also numerous circulating libraries.

Public Buildings—The Civic Auditorium with a seating capacity of 9,136, contains a magnificent organ and is used for conventions and a variety of events. The War Memorial Opera House and the War Memorial Building provide a home for opera, the symphony orchestra, and a permanent war relics museum. San Francisco was the first city of the nation to have a civic opera house. It has a seating capacity of 3,285. The War Memorial Opera House and the War Memorial Building were chosen for the meeting places of the United Nations delegates from April 25 to June 26, 1945, to construct the Charter of the United Nations, and in 1955 for the Commemorative Session of the U. N., and for the Japanese Peace Conference in September, 1951.

Clubs—There are numerous societies, clubs, lodges, and fraternal groups beside the civic, historical, military, religious, and sporting groups. San Francisco contains many foreign colonies where the daily life and social events familiar to their native countries have been re-established here.

Churches—San Francisco has 438 churches, representing many denominations. The congregations of the churches include people of many nationalities, such as English, German, Italian, French, Spanish, Scandinavian, Russian, and Chinese.

PUBLIC HEALTH

San Francisco public health facilities include a bacteriological laboratory, a chemical laboratory, consolidated inspection services, the San Francisco Hospital, the Laguna Honda Home for aged indigents, the Hassler Health Farm for convalescent tuberculosis cases, six emergency hospitals, child welfare centers, well-baby clinics, and other health-control facilities scattered throughout the city.

RECREATION AND CULTURE

San Francisco is a city of supreme and exotic beauty, a city of many interesting aspects, and a cultural and vacation center for those who like to explore. The vacation experts, Californians, Inc., say—"There is the storybook part that is not on the map—the things of the city that guidebooks only hint at—small in area as great cities go, it is America's most cosmopolitan city. Almost surrounded by the sea, it's like being on shipboard all the time—there's salt in the ocean breeze, filling you with buoyant energy."

Some Outstanding Points of Interest and Their Characteristics

The Waterfront—"Threshold to all the world."

San Francisco-Oakland Bay Bridge—"World's largest, with foundations of greatest depth."

Golden Gate Bridge—"Longest single span in the world."

Latin Quarter—"Spreads up the slopes of Telegraph Hill and on to Fisherman's Wharf."

Educational Institutions—"Few cities in the world offer finer or more diversified facilities."

Chinatown—"Largest Chinese settlement in America."

Hotels, Restaurants—"Distinguished and distinctive."

Theatres—"Bid you to come forth for entertainment."

Downtown San Francisco—"Atmosphere all its own."

Civic Center, Auditorium, Opera—"First city to have a civic opera house and symphony concerts."

Parks, Museums, Sports—"Enough for days and days for spectators and participants alike."

Scenic Drives, Evenings—"Stunning vistas framed in the afterglow of sunset, and then, the lights."

Other facilities for outdoor activities embrace many golf courses in and adjacent to the city, including three San Francisco municipal courses; a yacht harbor; and several boat and swimming clubs.

A tour of San Francisco is refreshing and filled with many pleasant surprises. The city's delightful setting amidst sparkling waters and high hills is inspiring.

Beautiful vistas, lovely homes, a happy climate, comfortable living, all combine to spread a romantic aura over the whole community and lend to its distinction.

CLIMATE

San Francisco is a clean city with a cool, bracing, equable, open-all-year-around climate. The daily mean maximum temperature is 62.6 degrees. The daily mean minimum temperature is 50.4 degrees. The average daily temperature range is 12.2 degrees.

The hours of fog over San Francisco Bay recorded by the Lighthouse Service averages only 153 per year.

San Francisco is one of a few of nature's air-conditioned cities, relatively warm in winter and cool in summer. The long-time record of the Weather Bureau reveals that the sun shines in San Francisco during 66 of every 100 possible hours.

POPULATION AND CHARACTERISTICS

San Francisco Residents

The population of San Francisco on April 1, 1950, was 775,357 according to the U. S. Census, or 140,821 above 1940, and ranking San Francisco among the leading cities in the U. S. in numerical population gain. On Jan. 1, 1956, the population was estimated at 807,000. It is the eleventh largest city in the nation, based on population, but ranks close to first in several economic and social developments.

On April 1, 1940, the resident population, reported at 634,536, included 630,785 civilians and only 3,751 military. At about the peak of the nation's war production, on April 1, 1944, the resident civilian population had risen to 683,340 and the resident military had soared to 103,250, bringing the total resident population to 786,590. Near the end of the war, on Aug. 1, 1945, the special U. S. Census reported that San Francisco had 827,400 residents, including 59,753 military, 20,416 seamen on ships registered to San Francisco, and about 30,000 hotel occupants, or nearly 110,000 persons other than those living in owner-occupied and tenant dwellings.

EDUCATION

Fine Facilities for Education and Research

The educational facilities available in San Francisco and the Bay Area cover all fields and are outstanding in the West and in their rank among national institutions. Few cities in the world offer finer or more diversified educational opportunities.

Enrollment in institutions of higher education in northern California is above the national average in relation to the population.

Higher education facilities include the public universities system, state colleges, public junior colleges, private four-year colleges and private junior colleges.

Extensive research activities are carried out by the larger universities of California and Stanford and numerous other northern California organizations with research facilities.

Public Schools

In San Francisco under the jurisdiction of the Department of Education of San Francisco there are 127 schools with a total average daily attendance of 87,235 in 1955.

Other Schools

Several thousand additional students attend private, parochial, non-sectarian, and technical schools in San Francisco. In June, 1955, 26,491 students were attending Catholic schools and 772 were attending Protestant schools.

There are numerous privately-established schools in San Francisco which offer courses of training in practically all phases of business, art, dramatics, and the various trades.

Veterans' Training

Approved to offer training to war veterans under Public Law 346 as amended and Public Law 550 and published in January, 1956, were about 80 educational institutions in San Francisco, 243 in the Bay Region and 307 in northern California. In this group are public and private institutions including universities, colleges, junior colleges, high schools, medical schools and nursing schools. The private vocation schools and professional and semi-professional schools cover thirty fields of learning.

Colleges, Universities and Enrollment—Spring, 1956

The San Francisco State College (8,084), City College of San Francisco (6,603), San Francisco College for Women (488), and the University of San Francisco (3,039) are located in the city. The University of California (all campuses, 37,066—Berkeley, 16,275—San Francisco, 1,630) maintains several branches in San Francisco, including colleges of medicine, dentistry, pharmacy and law, and the California School of Fine Arts. Stanford (7,127 total) University's College of Medicine also is located in San Francisco. The University of California, at Berkeley, and Stanford University, at Palo Alto, both are within easy commuting distances of San Francisco. Other colleges and universities in the more immediate area offering standard curricula include Armstrong College of Business Administration, Dominican, Mills, Holy Name, Notre Dame, St. Mary's, University of Santa Clara, San Jose State and Ursuline.

SAN FRANCISCO . . .

Headquarters City of the West

Gateway to the tremendous Pacific Basin, with one of the world's finest harbors, San Francisco is business, financial, marketing and distribution center of the eleven western states which now have a population of nearly 24,000,000, or 14.29 per cent of the nation's total, with an effective buying income of nearly $42 billion, or $5,507 per family. The economic impact of these vast potentials resounds firmly upon San Francisco, "headquarters city of the West."

The million-dollar San Francisco Flower Market — largest in the country — recent addition to the city's constantly growing services and facilities.

It's a Pleasure to Live, Work and Do Business in San Francisco

San Francisco's location on one of the world's most beautiful bays creates an ideal year-round "air-conditioned" climate unequalled by any other large city in the world — the daily mean maximum temperature is 62.6 degrees, the daily mean minimum 50.4 degrees. A mecca for visitors, who last year exceeded one and a half million, the area is unique in recreational facilities.

Business Activity

Since 1940, the nine-county San Francisco Bay Area of which San Francisco is the core city has enjoyed a 372 per cent increase in retail trade, a 340.7 per cent increase in bank debits, and a 332.4 per cent increase in wholesale trade. The trend continues; the first six months of 1956 was the best half year in the area's history, with business activity up 8.5 per cent and financial transactions up 12 per cent compared to the same period of 1955.

Population

On January 1, 1956, San Francisco had a population of 807,000. About 290,000 additional persons commute to and from the city daily, creating a San Francisco market of more than a million persons. The thirteen-county San Francisco Bay Region has had a monthly increase of 10,434 new residents each month since 1950 and the population now totals nearly four million.

Industrial Growth

New and expanded factory plants totalled 514 in the Bay Region during 1955 and represented $143,508,536. An additional $200,000,000 was committed during the first six months of 1956. Some 5,630 diversified manufacturing units and 66,600 additional business and professional establishments are located throughout the Bay Region. The insured wages in manufacturing industries in San Francisco during 1955 amounted to about $345,000,000, or about $85,000,000 above the 1950 level. Total manufacturing employment in April, 1956, amounted to 208,200.

Domestic Trade

Firms selling in the San Francisco Bay Region are strategically located in the center of the Western Market. More than twice the goods per capita are sold at wholesale here than in any other major California city. Seven major Market Week showings are held, attracting many thousands of buyers. Nearly 2,000 branch offices of national and regional firms make San Francisco the largest branch office center having the largest dollar volume of sales in the entire West.

Port Facilities and World Trade

San Francisco has a $120 million investment in its magnificent waterfront facilities, and the Port Authority has expended $25 million in the past decade on modernization. Total volume of foreign, coastwise, intercoastal and inland shipping in 1955 was 5,807,673 revenue tons, with inland waterway traffic accounting for about two million tons. Exports in 1955 totalled $415,134,080 and imports totalled $355,015,168. More than 250 air and marine lines maintain offices or agencies in the city.

Which salesman produces better?

The one at the right not only looks better . . . his nerves are as unrumpled as his collar. No matter how hot and muggy outside, it's cool and dry in his Mark IV equipped car. He arrives fresh and alert. He sells better, tires less, makes more calls.

Seems a mighty big dividend for the low cost of a Mark IV auto air conditioner, doesn't it?

CAPITAL—FOR THE GROWING WEST

The continued industrial expansion of the West has resulted in an ever-increasing need for capital with which to build factories and to develop markets for a growing list of products. Blyth & Co., Inc., nationwide underwriters and distributors of securities, has played an important role since 1914 in helping to supply this capital through the sale of securities to thousands of large and small investors.

Listed below are some of the Western corporations whose securities Blyth & Co., Inc. has helped distribute, either as manager or joint manager of underwriting syndicates, through private sales to institutional investors, or through the distribution of large secondary offerings.

Please! Do Not Lend Your CITY DIRECTORY

IT COSTS YOU MONEY—Every Time it Is Loaned

The practice of lending your City Directory, in a great measure, is responsible for the increasing cost of Directory Service.

The reason is:—

There is a definite cost involved in the making of the DIRECTORY of Your City.

THIS COST MUST BE ABSORBED BY THE SUBSCRIBERS—BE THEY ONE—OR BE THEY 1000.

If there were but ONE SUBSCRIBER to the CITY DIRECTORY—THE ONE SUBSCRIBER would of necessity have to absorb THE WHOLE COST.

If there were 100 SUBSCRIBERS—each one would have to absorb 1/100th PART OF THE WHOLE COST.

If there were 1000 SUBSCRIBERS—each one would have to absorb 1/1000th PART OF THE WHOLE COST.

From which it is obvious that the GREATER the number of subscribers —the LESSER the cost to each.

And

It is also obvious that the LESSER the number of subscribers—the GREATER the cost to each.

Every time you loan your City Directory the LESS NECESSITY THERE IS FOR THE BORROWER TO SUBSCRIBE FOR THE SERVICE.

MORE BORROWERS result in FEWER SUBSCRIBERS which means INCREASED COST.

Out of Sight!

Out of Mind!

Out of Business!

The importance of keeping firm and product names in the public eye is recognized by all business men. It is astonishing to see how a firm or product, however meritorious, will slip into the limbo of the forgotten if not persistently advertised.

The City Directory is the natural medium for keeping a business or product name in the spotlight. Insist on being well represented in its pages.

Please! Do Not Lend Your CITY DIRECTORY

IT COSTS YOU MONEY—Every Time it Is Loaned

The practice of lending your City Directory, in a great measure, is responsible for the increasing cost of Directory Service.

The reason is:—

There is a definite cost involved in the making of the DIRECTORY of Your City.

THIS COST MUST BE ABSORBED BY THE SUBSCRIBERS—BE THEY ONE—OR BE THEY 1000.

If there were but ONE SUBSCRIBER to the CITY DIRECTORY—THE ONE SUBSCRIBER would of necessity have to absorb THE WHOLE COST.

If there were 100 SUBSCRIBERS—each one would have to absorb 1/100th PART OF THE WHOLE COST.

If there were 1000 SUBSCRIBERS—each one would have to absorb 1/1000th PART OF THE WHOLE COST.

From which it is obvious that the GREATER the number of subscribers —the LESSER the cost to each.

And

It is also obvious that the LESSER the number of subscribers—the GREATER the cost to each.

Every time you loan your City Directory the LESS NECESSITY THERE IS FOR THE BORROWER TO SUBSCRIBE FOR THE SERVICE.

MORE BORROWERS result in FEWER SUBSCRIBERS which means INCREASED COST.

IN SAN FRANCISCO...IT'S THE EXAMINER

... first in news, circulation and advertising

The NEWS

is San Francisco's Leading HOME NEWSpaper

1. Editorial

The News is designed for clear, thorough reporting and balanced views. It considers community service a public trust and keeps faith with its city by publishing the news honestly, soberly and concisely.

2. Circulation

As The News is edited as a family newspaper so its circulation is delivered to the home. The News is the only San Francisco newspaper reporting its home-delivered circulation.

3. Advertising

Because The News sells to a family market, advertisers find it a productive medium. The News reaches more persons per reader family than any other San Francisco daily newspaper.

★ Out of Business ★

The importance of keeping firm and product names in the public eye is recognized by all business men. It is astonishing to see how a firm or product, however meritorious, will slip into the limbo of the forgotten if not persistently advertised.

The City Directory is the natural medium for keeping a business or product name in the spotlight. Insist on being well represented in its pages.

DO YOUR EMPLOYERS FURNISH YOU WITH THE LATEST EDITION OF THE CITY DIRECTORY?

You need it at your elbow at all times, to protect your company from forgers and bad-check artists. A few questions, checked against City Directory information, will trip them at once. Intelligent use of the City Directory for this purpose has saved thousands of dollars and helped make some cities "too sharp" for bad-check "operators."

CAUTION . . . . .

Pay no money in advance to itinerant Directory Canvassers. We are led to mention this from the fact that certain parties have been fraudulently using our publications as specimens, and by that means collecting money in advance. Before signing an order, see that it has the name of the publisher of this City Directory printed thereon. We ask no payment until the work is delivered, and our solicitors have strict orders not to take advance payment for either advertising or subscriptions.

"r"—RESIDENT
"h"—HOUSEHOLDER

"r" AND "h"

Two important symbols are used in your City Directory. The symbol "r", before an address stands for "Resident". That person resides at that address but is not the head of the family or family head. The symbol "h" stands for "Householder"—the person in whose name the home is occupied.

Out of Sight! • Out of Mind! • Out of Business!

The importance of keeping firm and product names in the public eye is recognized by all business men. It is astonishing to see how a firm or product, however meritorious, will slip into the limbo of the forgotten if not persistently advertised.

The City Directory is the natural medium for keeping a business or product name in the spotlight. Insist on being well represented in its pages.

. . . NOW WITH NIC-L-CAP

New . . . Exclusive . . . The Greatest Safety Feature Ever Incorporated in the Construction of an Automobile Battery!

EASY TO INSPECT

To check the water level just flip off the plastic top of a NIC-L-CAP. It's that easy —the water well is right there in plain sight.

PROTECTS

With NIC-L-CAP there is no need to poke a filling tube into the battery and possibly striking, or injuring, the plates. Also, since only the plastic flip-off lid is removed, there is NO DANGER OF FOREIGN PARTICLES FALLING INTO THE BATTERY.

SO SAFE

NIC-L-CAP is so clean, so easy to remove, so safe to handle that even lady motorists can inspect the water level of the battery with no fuss—no muss, and they can add water just as easily.

ALWAYS A RESERVE SUPPLY

The water well of a NIC-L-CAP carries a full supply of water. And, with NIC-L-SILVER's "add water once a year" construction, it means extra safety—and extra life —for your battery, all at NO EXTRA COST.
